

~~Not Action~~

88TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 750

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 9, 1963

Mr. CEDERBERG introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce

---

A BILL

To amend sections 303 and 310 of the Communications Act of 1934 to provide that the Federal Communications Commission may, if it finds that the national security would not be endangered, issue licenses for the operation of an amateur station to certain aliens for any temporary period, not in excess of three years.

- 1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 2       That clause (1) of section 303 of the Communications Act
- 3       of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 303) is amended—
- 4              (1) by inserting “(1)” immediately after “except
- 5              that”; and
- 6              (2) by adding before the semicolon at the end of

1       such clause a comma and the following: "and (2) upon
2       a finding by the Commission that substantially similar
3       privileges are granted to citizens of the United States
4       while in the foreign state of which an alien is a citizen
5       or to which an alien owes permanent allegiance, the 6       Commission may, if it finds that the national security
7       would not be endangered, (A) issue a license for the 8       operation of an amateur station to any such alien it finds
9       qualified for any temporary period, not in excess of three 10      years, and (B) revoke summarily any such license, not-
11      withstanding any other provision of this Act relating 12      to revocation of station licenses".

13      SEC. 2. Subsection (a) of section 310 of the Communi-
14      cations Act of 1934 is amended by striking out the last 15      sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Not-
16      withstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, (A) a license
17      for a radio station on an aircraft may be granted to and held
18      by a person who is an alien or a representative of an alien
19      if such person holds a United States pilot certificate or a 20      foreign aircraft pilot certificate which is valid in the United 21      States on the basis of reciprocal agreements entered into with 22      foreign governments; and (B) upon a finding by the Com-
23      mission that substantially similar privileges are granted to 24      citizens of the United States while in the foreign state of 25      which an alien is a citizen or to which an alien owes perma-

1    nent allegiance, a license for an amateur radio station may
2    be granted to and held by any such alien the Commission
3    finds qualified, if the Commission finds that the national 4    security would not be endangered thereby."

Approved For Release 2005/01/27 : CIA-RDP66B00403R000200110015-0

88TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 750

---

A BILL

To amend sections 303 and 310 of the Communications Act of 1934 to provide that the Federal Communications Commission may, if it finds that the national security would not be endangered, issue licenses for the operation of an amateur station to certain aliens for any temporary period, not in excess of three years.

---

By Mr. CEDERBERG

---

JANUARY 9, 1963

Referred to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce

Approved For Release 2005/01/27 : CIA-RDP66B00403R000200110015-0